

Interstellar War

Music: Mikael Dahl

Lyrics: Andreas Götesson

It's the golden age of the human race
The time has come to conquer space,
'cause we have learned to navigate in time and space, through stargates

Pre Chorus:

Our starships fill the skies in countless worlds
Our warlords burn the worlds in countless galaxies Solarsystems we bring to an end
Through war and destruction we will transcend

Chorus:

All over the universe we are bringing war, to every galaxy we explore Through windows in warp space we reach the most distant place with our mission: Interstellar War!

In every corner of the universe planets die, explode and burst Billions of life forms meet their fate, due to our hunger to dominate

Pre Chorus:

Chorus:

The universe is now in our grasp
The last resistance is falling fast The days of glory are drawing near, when man shall rule with pain and fear

Pre Chorus:

Chorus:

Gods Of The World

Music: Mikael Dahl

Lyrics: Mikael Dahl

Heed the call that's striking the skyline of the world
A screaming sound louder than no one's ever heard

Pre Chorus:

Like a mighty roaring fire
Coming down from high above
From the kingdom of the sky to defend the earth

Chorus:

We are the heroes of our time
We are the guardians of mankind
We're riding the never-ending storm
We are the army of the sky
Power and glory, we'll never die
We're fighting the forces of evil
We are the gods of the world

Deliverance, from all the pain in human minds Rising hope, leaving the troubles far behind

Pre Chorus:

As the sunlight burns the rainbow, great saviours fill the air
To protect the human race and save the world

Chorus:

Solo:

Nyberg - Dahl - Nyberg - Dahl

Chorus:

And we're riding tonight

Winds Of The Free

Music: Mikael Dahl

Lyrics: Mikael Dahl

Living for the day
Life lights their way
They are all forever free
They will never die, never wonder why
they are all forever free

Pre Chorus:

There will always be sun up in the sky, a rainbow standing high Red horizon lights their way over the seas, from tears of the trees
Here they always stay

Chorus:

Ride on your wings
children of the sky Fly on forever,
on winds of the free

Beyond reality,
a world in harmony
They are all living in peace

Pre Chorus:

Chorus:

Solo:

Nyberg - Dahl

Bridge:

We all will die someday
I hope I'll find the way to the land of glory days and then I'll fly on the winds of the free

Chorus:

The Power Behind The Throne

Music: Mikael Dahl

Lyrics: Andreas Götesson

Intro:

Once there was a mighty king whose tragedy bards still sing He ruled his realm right and fair, doing evil no one ever dared

Then one day a stranger came
"Randal," he said, "is my name
The art of magic is my trade and I'll entertain if I get paid"

And the king gladly took him in, never seeing the wizard's grin From that day the blissful years forever changed into times of fear

Pre Chorus:

Day by day, the wizard was slowly taking control
Day by day, the king was slowly losing his soul

Chorus:

And no one could see the shadow, which fell upon the old king
A sinister spell!
The cause of his pain
no one could tell
The wizard just laughed, his plan worked so well!

As the wizard rose in might, he turned the king from the light
The king became grim and cold and did whatever Randal told

The king began a terror reign, taught his people to feel pain They never knew that he was prone to the power behind the throne

Pre Chorus:

Chorus:

The malice gleamed in the wizard's eyes when he was feeding the king with lies

Solo:

Dahl - Nyberg

Chorus:

The Dragon's Lair

Music: Mikael Dahl

Lyrics: Andreas Götesson

Way up north where the eagles sore, beneath a mountain, within its core There's a treasure, you've been told, lakes of silver and hills of gold But the stories they also told about the dragon who killed the bold who dared to enter his dark domains to steal his treasure, they died in flames!

Pre Chorus:

Into the darkness you go Defying the dangers ahead
In search for silver and gold
Driven by greed

Chorus:

Upon his treasure lies the creature rare
A sleeping beast of fire and air
Well, enter thief, now if you dare Yes enter fool! the dragon's lair

Down in the dungeons you make your way
In total darkness, is it night or day?
Slowly sneaking on soundless feet, moving towards the increasing heat The smell of sulphur, the dragon's near, but so is the treasure so don't feel fear
The call of gold you just can't deny If death awaits... well, you have to try

Pre Chorus:

Chorus:

Bridge:

Shining silver and glittering gold It's beyond your wildest dreams and you steal with eyes that gleams But the sound of ringing gold wakes the beast of stories told The rattling coins seal your fate
With a single glance into his CRYSTAL EYES, your greedy soul is lost, turned to ice!

Solo:

Nyberg - Dahl

Pre Chorus:

Chorus:

Eyes Of The Forest Gloom

Music: Mikael Dahl

Lyrics: Mikael Dahl, Andreas Götesson

And so the story began with me falling into a dream where the forest were calling Closer and closer the twilight was dragging me down to the unknown

So here I am all alone in the tree land, feeling the wind of my fate close at hand Creatures of the night begins to take form
I'm surrounded now

Pre Chorus:

I don't know how it all began
I can't remember anything
Yesterday's forever gone
I am trapped in a place beyond time

Chorus:

And the moon is shining bright over the forest
And the creatures of the night won't let me rest Beyond reality – for no one to see Dark is the dream – no one hears my scream
I can't stand those staring eyes
Eyes of the forest gloom
Eyes of the forest gloom

Predator eyes that watch me intensely, their gaze from the shadows are burning me slowly Hunted I search for my way through the dreamscape and it feels so real

Will I survive? I have to wake up, but deep inside I know that I'm trapped Lost in a dream that's no longer a dream
My life is flashing by

Pre Chorus:

Chorus:

Bridge:

Silver moonbeams light my way with their glow Yet, gnarled trees rip my skin as I go deeper down into the ominous gloom I'm afraid this path is leading to my doom

Solo:

Nyberg - Dahl

Pre Chorus:

Chorus:

And so the story ends with me dying

Rage On The Sea

Music: Mikael Dahl

Lyrics: Mikael Dahl

Lightning strikes on the wild raging sea, the storm rules in the air Roaring thunder in the burning horizon, waves high in the sky
But the warriors on the ship of hate will stay in their course Thunderstorm will not stop the rage or the cry for blood

Pre Chorus:

On and on, in the storm
Through the horizon
Wind in their sails
Lust for fight, kill and rape

Chorus:

Tyrants out on the sea
Death awaits in their steel
This battleship will be your end
Hungry eyes of the pirates
Anger grows on the sea
By the sword you will die

Breaking the waves like a sword in the wind, with the flag in the sky Searching for flesh to their steel, they will show no mercy Eternal evil, hate and pride, there's no escape
Glory shines in their eyes, to pride to die

Pre Chorus:

Chorus:

Solo:

Dahl

Pre Chorus:

Chorus:

Victims Of The Frozen Hate

Music: Mikael Dahl, Claes Wikander

Lyrics: Mikael Dahl

They came from far away, from a land in a frozen time Through ice and snow they walked with their broken homes in mind, they cried!

Without a warning
they ended all lifes in their way In search for a land where they could forever stay

Chorus:
Blood on the snow and cries in the wind
Victims of hate, they fell to the ground
One by one, they tasted vengeance
No one could fight the soldiers in a frozen time

With tears in their eyes the ground was painted in red They searched for revenge, by the frozen hate they were led

Chorus:

Bridge:
A battle in tears for the homes they had lost in the cold
They murdered all those who dared to come in their way

Solo:
Nyberg - Dahl

Who were those soldiers with frozen hate inside
And all poor victims who had no place to hide

Chorus:

Bridge:
...the soldiers in a frozen time
They murdered all those who dared to come in their way

Extreme Paranoia

Music: Mikael Dahl

Lyrics: Andreas Götesson

Sweat is running free, trickling down on my brow
Every man that I see is a potential foe
Have to stay down, have to stay low
Can not let them know

Pre Chorus:

And if I just can stay alert and keep my senses clear
I know that I can beat them all and maybe kill my fear

Chorus:

But the man in the mirror is my worst enemy Everywhere, he is there, always following me I'm paranoid to the extreme

Agony, panic and fear are surging up inside of me Hidden dangers are everywhere to see Malicious lurkers, I have to flee Oh please let me be

Pre Chorus:

Chorus:

Pre Chorus:

Chorus:

Glory Ride

Lyrics: Mikael Dahl

Raise the banner to the sky
Saddle the beasts for battle now
Play the tunes of war
Mighty knights grab your swords and fight

Brothers of battle show your hate United we are the enemies fate
Slaughter is our aim Blood will flow, heads will roll

Pre Chorus:
We are the sons of evil
The call of the wild
We are the gods of war
The great force of death

Chorus:
We're riding the glory of war
On and on we're fighting with honour and pride
We are crusading now

Now it's time for victory
No surrender, no retreat Across the battlefield soldiers are raging tonight

Anger, hatred, aggression, pain
Behold the weak that won't remain Let the ground be covered with their blood and our pride

Pre Chorus:
Chorus:

Solo:
Dahl - Nyberg

Pre Chorus:
Chorus:

Oh, oh, oh... we are crusading now

World Of Black And Silver

Music: Mikael Dahl

Lyrics: Andreas Götesson

I think I'm standing in a garden at night
The distant stars provide the only light Strange flowers grow all around me, their heavy fragrance intoxicates me

Pre Chorus:

Reality is slowly growing dimmer and I begin to see a new world shimmer It's like seeing through a silver haze into a weird but beautiful place

Filled with dreams I begin to wander through this maze of alien wonders Into glades with ponds of starlight, ethereal beauty beyond human might

Pre Chorus:

And I see statues moving as in trance with slow gestures, in a grotesque dance to the mystical and haunting tunes that fill this place like narcotic fumes

Chorus:

I might be dead... or maybe I am dreaming?
It doesn't matter, it has no meaning in this world of black and silver

Solo:

Dahl

Bridge:

Then this dream-state takes an evil twist and all the sudden rises a reeking mist
The air turns foul by the sickening haze Corruption spreads throughout the maze Malignant shadows with lurid eyes roar with laughter as the beauty dies Insane whispers and bestial groans mingle with my tormented moans

Chorus:
